

Tuesday, September 11, 2012

The Old Mill

21 The Old Mill, Toronto, Ontario

(Click HERE for directions)

5:30 - 6:00 pm Hospitality

6:00 - 7:15 pm Dinner

7:15 Technical Presentation

Topic: Current Metalworking Fluid Issues

Presenter: Jerry P. Byers

Manager of Cimcool Research & Development

Cimcool Fluid Technology

Cincinnati, OH

Abstract: The first part of the talk is about STLE: Where we are and where we are going. Jerry is the STLE President.

The second half is entitled "Current Metalworking Fluid Issues" and will examine recent regulatory changes and trends in such areas as MWF biocides, air emissions (VOC), chlorinated lubricants, green products, and more.

Biography: Jerry Byers is the Manager of Cimcool Product Research & Development at Cimcool Fluid Technologies LLC in Cincinnati, Ohio. He received his Bachelors degree in Chemistry from Ball State University, and a Masters degree in Chemistry from the University of Cincinnati. He is a Certified Metalworking Fluid Specialist (CMFS). Jerry is currently President of STLE for 2012-2013, and has been active in the organization for 35 years. He has served on the Board of Directors for that organization, as an associate editor for Tribology Transactions, and as a member of the STLE Metalworking Fluids Education and Training Subcommittee. He held several offices in the Cincinnati section of STLE, including Chairman. He has authored several journal articles, and was contributing editor for two books: Metalworking Fluids (Marcel Dekker, 1994), and Metalworking Fluids, Second Edition (Taylor & Francis, 2006).

STLE members and guests please preregister with Ed Milanczak at emilan@cogeco.ca. You can still show up at the door for the talk and dinner if there is enough. Otherwise you can eat at the restaurant and rejoin us for the talk.

Meeting Fees

STLE Members $45      Non-Members $55      Students $20

Retirees and members in transition between jobs $25

(Includes meal, refreshments & talk. Subject to change without notice and add $5 if not pre-registered)

Please pass this along to others in your company or to colleagues.